

”The washbasin that will fit into any interior”

ROPOX ADAPTLINE

A SMALL AND ELEGANT SOLUTION

AdaptLine is the obvious choice when you are looking to replace an old washbasin with a new one as it has a small wash unit and it can easily be adapted to existing water installations and drains.

You can adjust the height manually with a crank, and the design makes the unit easy to clean which allows you to keep a high level of hygiene.

All installations are visible on this solution.

AdaptLine is the flexible and elegant solution when you need a smaller washbasin which will fit most interiors.

There are 10 types of washbasins to choose from so you can be sure to get the model that fit the users best.
